

Environmental affairs

Our environmental affairs team manages projects globally while providing expertise in air, water and waste management compliance. It sets policy and compliance requirements for the company and creates systems and tools that ensure ongoing execution. The team helps integrate newly acquired sites and products, monitors the latest regulatory and legislative trends, and determines the affect on our sites, businesses and customers. It also monitors emerging issues as signposts to our businesses.