

Remediation

The remediation group supports our company in the investigation, remediation and environmental risk management of our worldwide environmental liabilities. The group also provides support on due diligence projects to evaluate the potential impact of environmental conditions on mergers, acquisitions and divestitures. The remediation group also supports our emergency response efforts by directing and assisting with the assessment and management of chemical spills associated with the production, storage, transportation and/or customer use of our products.