

Safety management

The safety team provides global safety support to employees to enable us to achieve our goal of zero incidents. To this end, the members of the team provide subject matter expertise in every area of safety, including basic safe work practices and specialty niche areas, such as ergonomics and process safety. Other key areas include safety mentoring, incident management, emergency response and metrics management.