Subject: Ashland's position on Eurasia REACH

Dear valued customer,

Technical Regulation of Eurasia Economic Union (EAEU) on Safety of chemical products (TR No. 041/2017), commonly known as "Eurasia REACH", was approved on March 3rd 2017.

Entry into force of the regulation has been set at December 30, 2023, provided that the second level documents are adopted in time. These documents have not yet entered into force, so the exact date of entry into force of TR EAEU 041/2017 is still open.

Russia created the initial Inventory on November 7th 2019 and notification was carried out until December 2020. Ashland has submitted notification of all relevant substances imported into EAEU by Ashland to the inventory.

Shall you have any questions on the matter please do not hesitate to contact us via your Ashland customer service representative.

Kind Regards,
